Advises from Santa Fe state that the Casado railway will be completed this year.

We have received the following from an esteemed Barraguan of the Onco:

M. Jaimes, barraguan of the South market, has sent word circulars to his brethren of the trade which looks like an action advertisement "a la Raizin"; he complains that buyers are inclined to buy "a la arser" and calls a meeting at 4 o'clock on they lay in the Bolsas. We do not believe that anything will come out of the matter, since such things are not to be put upon understanding between buyer and seller.

Mr. Gmo. Printzknacker, ship broker of Rosario, gives the following exports, &c. since December 1st, 1882, to January 1st, 1884:—

56,940	hides
2,775	dry horse hides
183	pipes tallow
